"Déjà Vu, All Over Again?" Tigers Bite Hard

Return Date~
Too Close to Call

Lady Tigers Host New District Entry Tomball

When Wimberley fans and players arrived in Tiger Stadium on September 23, it would have been easy to imagine that they were the team that was wronged in 2010.

The anger came out in many ways, including the frustration of a lack of control over rule calls.

Behind the end zone, one not-so-smart photographer started to launch an argument with men around the tunnel.

"We have the films," was the quote.

News flash for Wimberley: So does Sealy, and they gave the facts.

On Friday night, Stadium PA announcer Rick Bauman said, "It's Déjà vu all over again," when the Tigers were short on the last two-point conversion.

Yes, Wimberley got the steak, but in some ways, the Tigers got hamburger from their hides.

It was not a win, but the Tigers proved that Wimberley can be sunk, throwing a mighty scare into that unbeaten record.

The outcome came down to the same play, with the same one point margin. See page 2~

Tyler Eckhardt stepped on the field against Wimberley, and the Texans regretted it, as Eckhardt shut down his highly touted opponents, covering like a blanket. Here, Eckhardt covers Davis Holliman. The receiver ended his night with one catch for six yards. Eckhardt did not worry about catches. He prevented them.

Frantic Worry

If it was not worry that created a hostile reaction from some Wimberley fans, then it was the quality of Sealy's reluctance to lay down for the opponent.

The Tigers came to play, and they did. The coaching staff came to win.

Scott Kana, Sealy ISD Superintendent, had to ask SISD Police to keep a watch on the Wimberley side of the field, late in the third quarter.

It must be terrible to not be a Tiger.

Trainers: A Hard Group to Lasso

Everyone is glad when business is good. If it was based on work produced, the Sealy trainers would be high in rankings.

It is hard to get a picture of all the trainers at once, since they make different games during the week. They are an active group!

Trainer Jeff McDaniel has April Munoz, Hilda Rivera, Afton Stone, Derrion Dabney, Ashley Youngblood, Maria Nino, Eric Robinson, Angela Guerrero and Angel Sanchez in the group.

They all contribute in much needed ways to the games, and keep a watch on the needs of athletes. It is a special calling.

Right: Tiger Trainer Jeff McDaniel stops for a pose with student trainer assistant Derrion Dabney before the game against the Texan tribe from Wimberley, in the Hill Country. The entire Trainer staff is on the spot for injuries and other athletic needs. Just behind is Jacqueline Kana, "Miss Tiggy," who is anticipating a big night. She was rejoined by Roderick Green, "Mr Tiggy," in his return to Tiger Stadium turf for the second home game of the season.
